

WARNING FOR CITY MEETING.

The legal voters of the City of Barre, Vermont, are hereby notified and warned to meet in the city hall of the City of Barre, on Tuesday, April 25, 1911, at 7:30 o'clock p. m., to transact the following business:

First: To elect a moderator to preside at said meeting.

Second: To see what salary the city will give to the mayor, city clerk and treasurer for their services the ensuing year.

Third: To see what compensation the city will give to the auditors, assessors and assessors for their services the ensuing year.

Fourth: To see if the city will vote to place the workmen who are employed by the city in the street and water departments on a fifty hour per week schedule, with the same pay as they are now receiving for fifty-four hours.

Fifth: To see if the city will vote to exempt from taxation for a term of ten years, any industry outside of the granite industry, that would locate in the city.

Sixth: To see if the city will vote to accept a quit-claim deed from the Congregational society for that piece of land on Hill street known as the "Common property" and pay to the said society the sum of one thousand dollars for the same.

Seventh: To see if the city will vote to build a public gymnasium for the use of the school children on the land connected with the Spaulding school.

Eighth: If the city votes to build a public gymnasium how much money will it appropriate for this purpose and in what manner will the funds for the same be raised?

Ninth: To see if the city will vote to direct the school commissioners to establish an evening drawing school in the city.

Tenth: If the city votes to establish an evening drawing school how much money will it vote for the establishment and support of the same and from what source shall funds be raised to carry it out?

Eleventh: To do any other proper business.

Dated at the City of Barre, Vermont, this 12th day of April, 1911.

James Mutch, mayor.

Saved His Mother's Life

"Four doctors had given me up," writes Mrs. Laura Gaines, of Avoca, La., "and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. SUNSHINE are the two great creators of energy. You can get along without Scott's Emulsion if you have enough sunshine, but for the millions who don't get much sunshine, Scott's Emulsion is absolutely necessary. You can always get Scott's Emulsion. Get sunshine, too, whenever you can.
AND

IN MEMORIAM.

Words of Appreciation of Life of Charles Howard Beede.

To the memory of the late Charles Howard Beede by his son, Clinton:

So he has gone, and what was mortal we have laid away to return again to dust, from which it came, and we believe the spirit has returned to his Father and our Father, who gave it. Our hearts are aching now, for we shall see him no more on earth, and he will mingle no more with us in our joys and sorrows.

Although we know 'tis God's plan of human life to take away that which He gave when He sees fit, yet when the time comes for our near and dearest friends to cross over the river into the border land, we somehow are not ready for the transition, and mourn more for the lost presence and empty void brought into our own lives, than for the actual fact that the dear one has gone out of this life of pain and woes into the untold and unknown future, for which this present existence is but a stepping stone to something, not worse, but better.

With this thought in mind let us as a family, who so grievously mourn the loss of our father and brother, and the score of friends and acquaintances, who will so miss the man that had a cheery word and smile for all, console our hearts and minds in the belief that he, at least, is better off, having passed from his years of pain and suffering from rheumatism and the more recent aggravating trouble, which must certainly end in death.

In private life, as a man of business, he was fair and upright in his dealings with all with whom he had business, and from a business standpoint we must say his life was surely a success, and the disclosure of his thought and talent in this direction would be an object lesson for any young man to-day worthy of emulation.

Born Aug. 3, 1839, in Haverhill, Mass., the eldest of a family of seven sons and four daughters, born to Joseph and Mary Beede, he came with his parents in early childhood to Washington, Vt., and as his father was a farmer, he was very early initiated into the rudiments of that occupation and from that early beginning, he followed on in the same line during the greater portion of his entire life, only having retired from farming in the spring of 1906. He was a born farmer, enjoyed it and made a success of it. The deceased began working out on farms at the age of fourteen and earned and carried home to his father his earnings, $700.00, at the low wage of his time. He was a self-made man and won his competence by his own hard work and close attention to the business at hand.

He married Almira E. Wilds of Orange, Vt., in Laconia, N. H., Aug. 21, 1862, and on the following day joined his comrades in an enlistment of volunteers, which was just then leaving Montpelier, for the South. He went in Co. I, 13th Reg. Vt. volunteers, under Col. Randall. He was in the seven days' march of his company on the bloody field of Gettysburg. His younger brother, Horatio, went at the same time and was with him in this battle, although their time of enlistment was expired as nine-month boys.

Soon following this, they were discharged and came home. It is reported that our father was a brave and fearless soldier. About 1870, he purchased and moved onto a farm in Topham (Waits River), where he resided 17 years, coming then to Barre for a time and returning again to West Topham a year or two later and purchasing the Jack Wallace hotel, which he conducted successfully until it burned in the fall of 1890. During the fall of 1892, he purchased land near C. M. Winch's on east hill, and built new buildings, where he lived until the death of his wife, in the winter of 1906, and since then making his home mostly with his youngest daughter, Mrs. C. E. Bixby, on Beckley hill, up to the time of his death, the 4th inst.

Of him, his children can say he was a kind and loving father and a good neighbor, his neighbors and friends, we believe, will miss him as a pleasant acquaintance and a good friend always, and a familiar figure on the streets of his home city. He had lived to see it grow from a small country village to a thriving city. He was an active, hard working man and by his thrift and energy and the combined prudence of himself and companion, he won a competence of which they were both deserving and may have been justly proud.

The funeral was well attended from Hedding M. E. church at 10 a. m., Friday, and the remains taken for burial to the West Topham cemetery in a family lot, where he had erected a monument to his wife and self some three years ago. Many were the beautiful flowers from relatives and friends and the attendance at the church showed the esteem in which he was held. To mourn his loss are a son and three daughters, also three brothers and one sister and a host of friends.

GRANITEVILLE.

There will be a meeting at the school house at 6:30 o'clock Friday evening, April 14, to form a baseball team. All those who are interested please attend.

MARSHFIELD.

George Davis began work in the Mears and Pitkin butter box shop last Monday.

Mrs. Louise Sanborn is working for Mrs. H. D. McCrillis, beginning work last Sunday.

Miss Elsie French of Attleboro, Mass., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Orange Swerdiger.

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Roakes says they are cooking in Pulver hotel, Revere, N. Y.

Dr. and Mrs. Wesley D. Lambertson of Morrisville are stopping at the Marshfield house indefinitely.

Mrs. James Loveland is taking care of Clarence, the little son of Mrs. Florence Boyce, while she is working.

Mrs. Orange Swerdiger recently visited relatives in Attleboro, Mass., several weeks, returning here about a week ago.

Mrs. Oakley Meader finished work last Saturday night at H. D. McCrillis', and is visiting her sister in East Montpelier, for an indefinite time.

Mrs. E. A. Rosebrook is nursing in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parley Pike, who are rejoicing in the birth of a daughter, which occurred Friday, March 10.

Mrs. Horace Brown has been suffering with a severe attack of neuralgia in the chest and shoulders. Her friends extend sympathy.

Silas Unwin finished moving to his new farm last Tuesday night, the family occupying the house. Mr. Martin occupies the house vacated by Mr. Unwin.

The M. E. Sunday school will give the Easter concert exercise, "The Pilgrim's Vision," at the church next Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

Sugarmakers who have so-called early sugar orchards, are having one of the largest runs of sap ever experienced. Snow is disappearing at a rapid rate, bidding fair to make way for spring at last.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson of Plainfield were at J. Berton Pike's last Saturday. Mr. Richardson has been much more comfortable for the past week than he has been for several months.

Mrs. David Lucas has been ill about two weeks with liver and stomach trouble. Mrs. Hubert Hollister is caring for her. Mr. and Mrs. Lucas have been ill nearly all winter, and have the sympathy of their many friends.

Charles Johnson, who has been very ill of pneumonia, is reported more comfortable. The nurse, who has been caring for him, is expected to leave the patient this week. Mr. Johnson is ill at the home of his father-in-law, Abel Beckley.

Rev. F. E. Currier preached his farewell sermon to a large audience last Sunday. The pastor has made a host of friends in his pastorate here, who are sorry to bid him farewell, but bid him God-speed, and he may feel sure of a welcome whenever he may come among them.

The U. R. K. of P.'s will have a box social at the hall next Saturday evening. The ladies are asked to bring boxes, containing lunch for two. These boxes will be sold at auction, to the highest bidder. A good time is anticipated, and everybody is invited to attend.

About 80 friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Dwinell met in Castle hall last Saturday evening in a reception to them, in honor of their marriage, which occurred at Londonderry, Wednesday. Mrs. Dwinell was formerly Mrs. Myra Alice Clifford of 580 Commonwealth avenue, Boston. A very pleasant evening was passed, music and dancing following light refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee. New maple syrup was furnished for the crowd by the groom. The wedding party received their friends in the lodge hall, assisted by the presiding officers of the Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias, Mr. Dwinell being a member of both.

The friends of M. Raymond Plumb will be glad to learn that he is to spend his vacation here and will conduct the services at the Congregational church the next two Sundays, April 16 and 23. The service next Sunday morning will include the sacred cantata, "Easter," which will be given by the choir and Sunday school. There will be a preaching service in the evening. On Friday evening, April 21, the Christian Endeavor society will give a social at the church. This will afford an opportunity for all to meet Mr. Plumb in a social way and enjoy a pleasant evening. He has kindly consented to assist in the program with readings and vocal selections. Refreshments will be served and a very cordial invitation is extended to all.
